

That's What I Like

A Book About Seasons

Written by Susan Oliver • Illustrated by Juliann Luke

Now the days are growing longer,
The air is warm once more,
Wispy clouds floating in the breeze, . . .

That's what I like about SPRING!

Trees budding with blossoms,
Raindrops falling on thirsty leaves,
Pretty flowers for me to smell, . . .

That's what I like about SPRING!

Running barefoot in the grass,
Climbing tall trees, leafy and green,
Butterflies playing in the warm sunlight, . . .

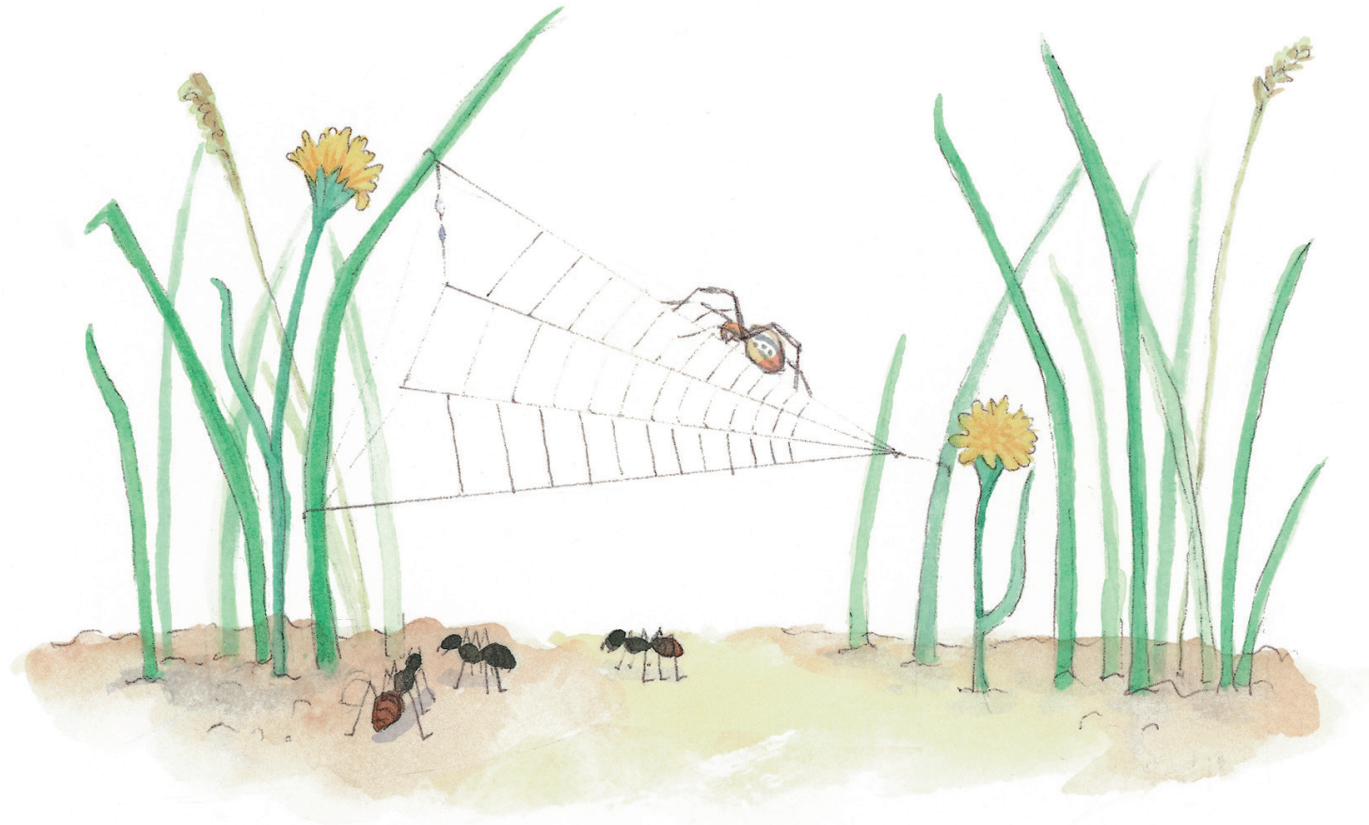

That's what I like about SUMMER!

Croaking frogs waiting for food,
Darting fish hiding in the shadows,
Ants in the sand, spiders spinning webs, . . .

That's what I like about SUMMER!

Long hot days are turning cold,
Garden leaves now brown and yellow,
Picking orange pumpkins big and round, . . .

That's what I like about FALL!

Raking autumn leaves into a pile,
Bending my knees and giving a jump,
Brown and gold leaves twirling down, . . .

That's what I like about FALL!

Wind whistling through bare trees,
Sending snowflakes dancing around,
Animals sleeping soundly in their homes, . . .

That's what I like about WINTER!

Snowballs whizzing through the air,
Icy snowmen with hats and scarves,
Skaters zipping across the ice,
That's what I like about WINTER!
