

Can You Guess?

---

A Story for Two Voices

Written by Sue Fay • Illustrated by Nate Baertsch

Tess: Let's play a guessing game.

Liz: Let me guess.

Tess: Okay. I am thinking of something.

Liz: You have to give me a clue.

Tess: You can't taste it.

Liz: It can't be a lemon. I can taste a lemon.

Tess: You can't smell it.

Liz: It can't be my clean socks. I can smell my clean socks.

Tess: It can help you fly a kite.

Liz: Could it be my grandpa? He helps me fly my kite.

Tess: I know, but your grandpa is not the answer.
Here is another clue. You can make it move.

Liz: It could be Dexter. I can make Dexter move.

Tess: That's not it either. Do you want another clue?

Liz: I think I need one!

Tess: You should keep it clean.

Liz: It has to be Dexter. I keep Dexter clean, too.

Tess: This is something you can't live without.

Liz: That's Dexter. We're pals.

Tess: You can't even see it.

Liz: Ooh! You're right! It's not Dexter. I can see Dexter.

Tess: It's all around you. Now can you guess?

Liz: This is hard. Let me think.

Liz: You can't taste it, smell it, see it, or live without it.
But you use it to fly a kite, and you need to keep it clean.
I know! It's air!

Tess: Wow! You guessed it.
