

IMAGINATION SHAPES

Written by James Wilding
Illustrated by Jim Madsen

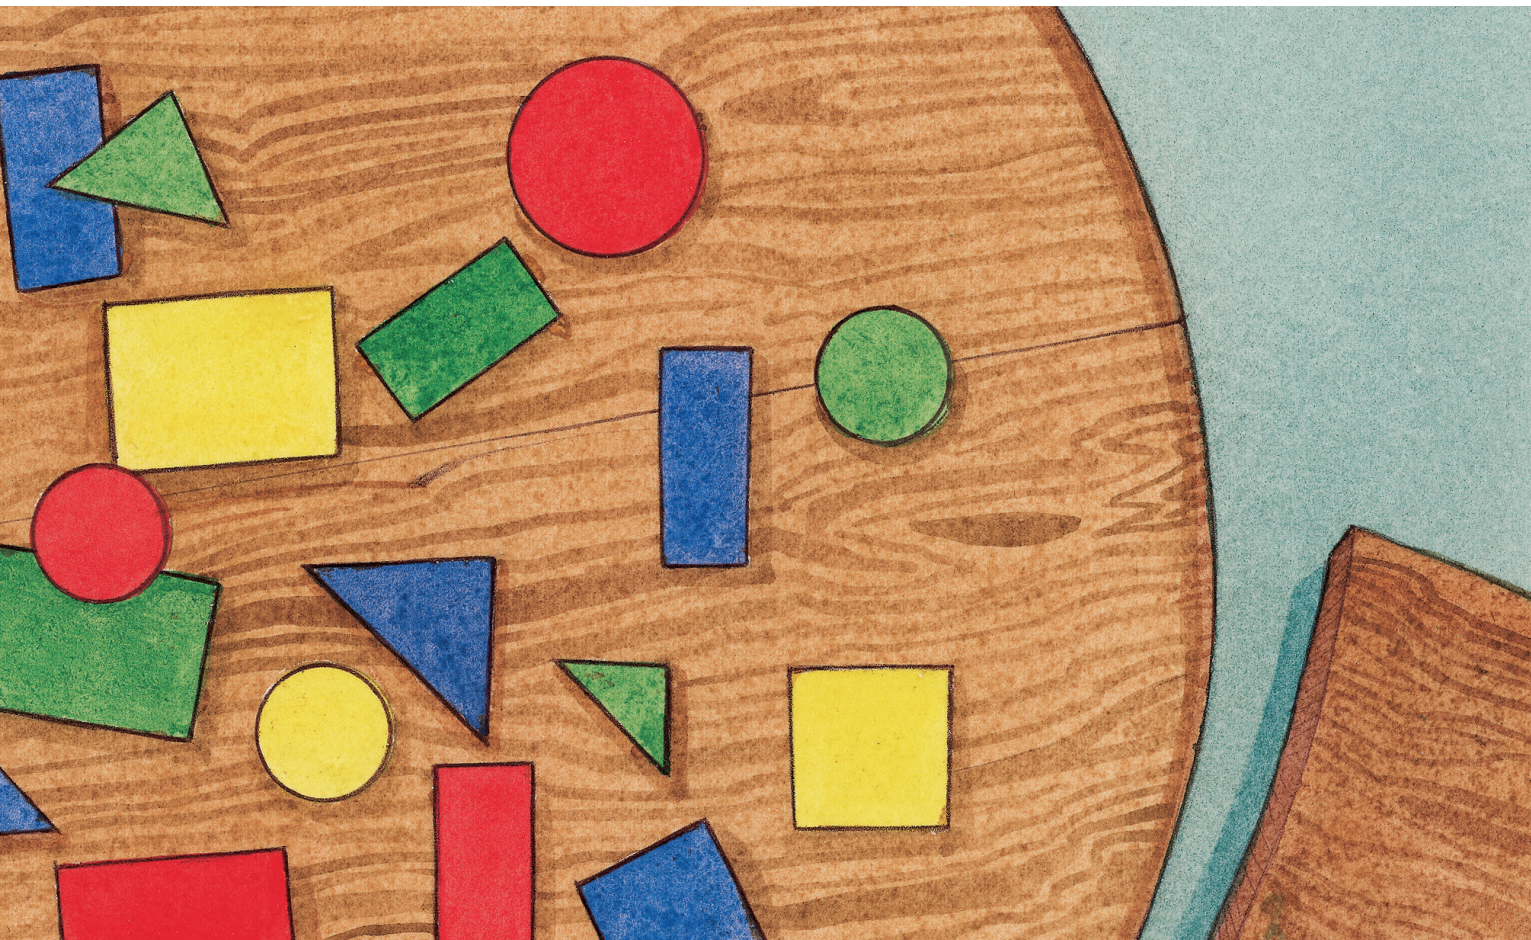

It had rained all day. It was too muddy to play.

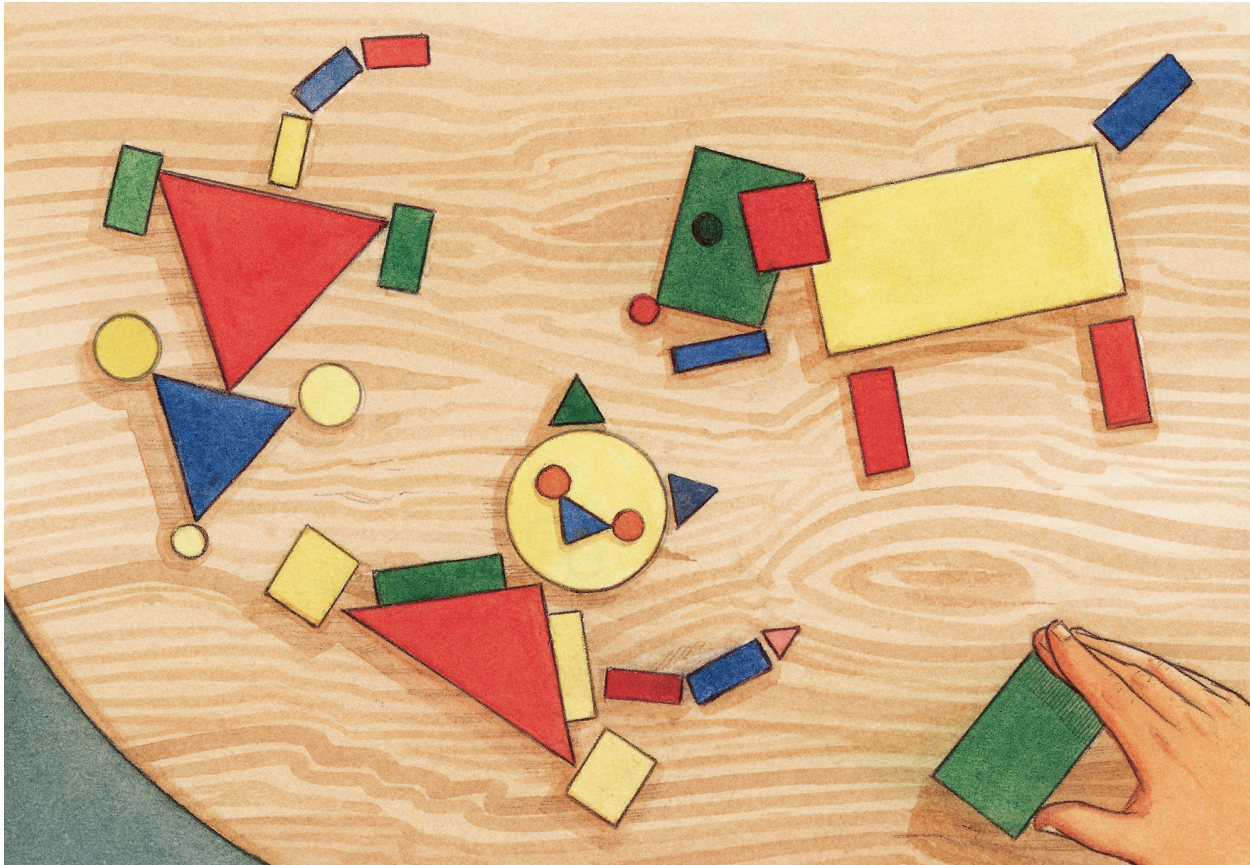

“Take these blocks and use your imagination,”
Mom said. “How many things can you make?”

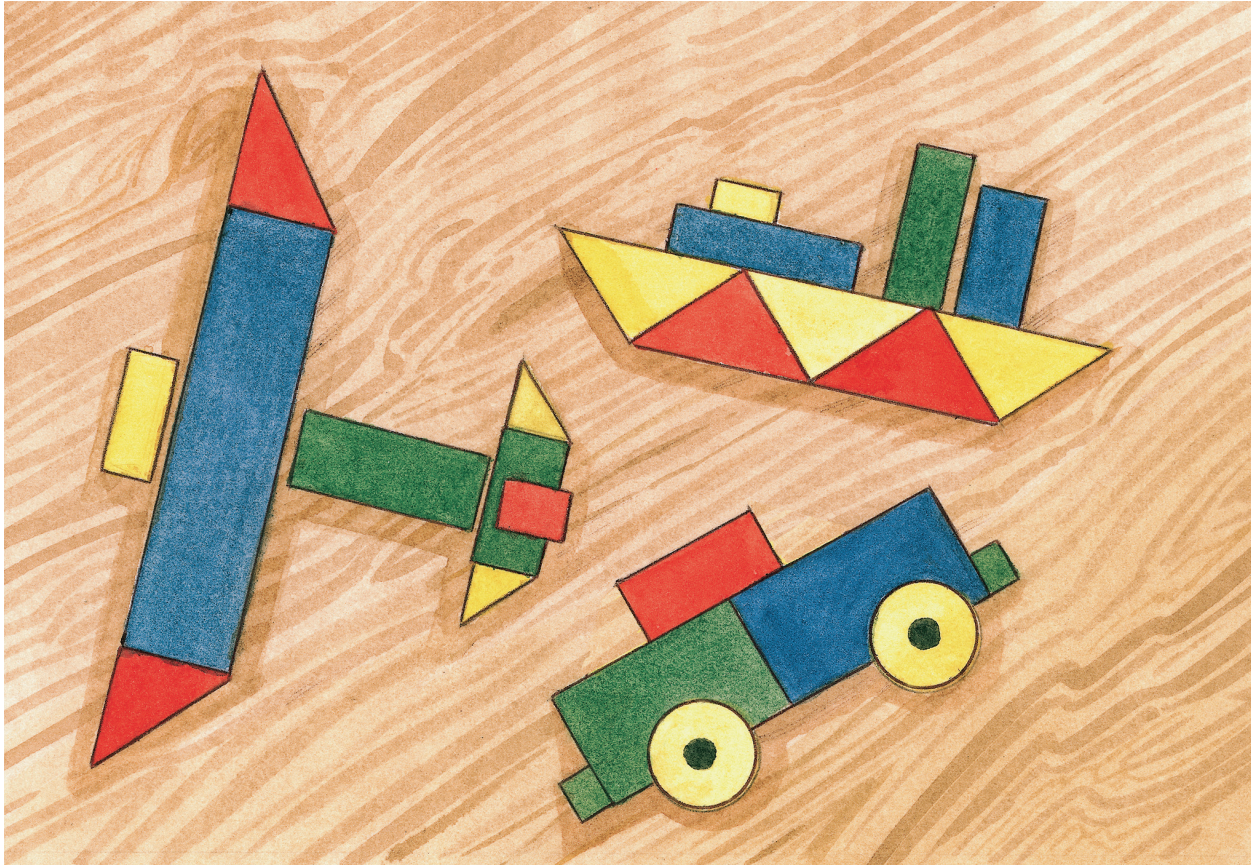

I spread the blocks out on the table.

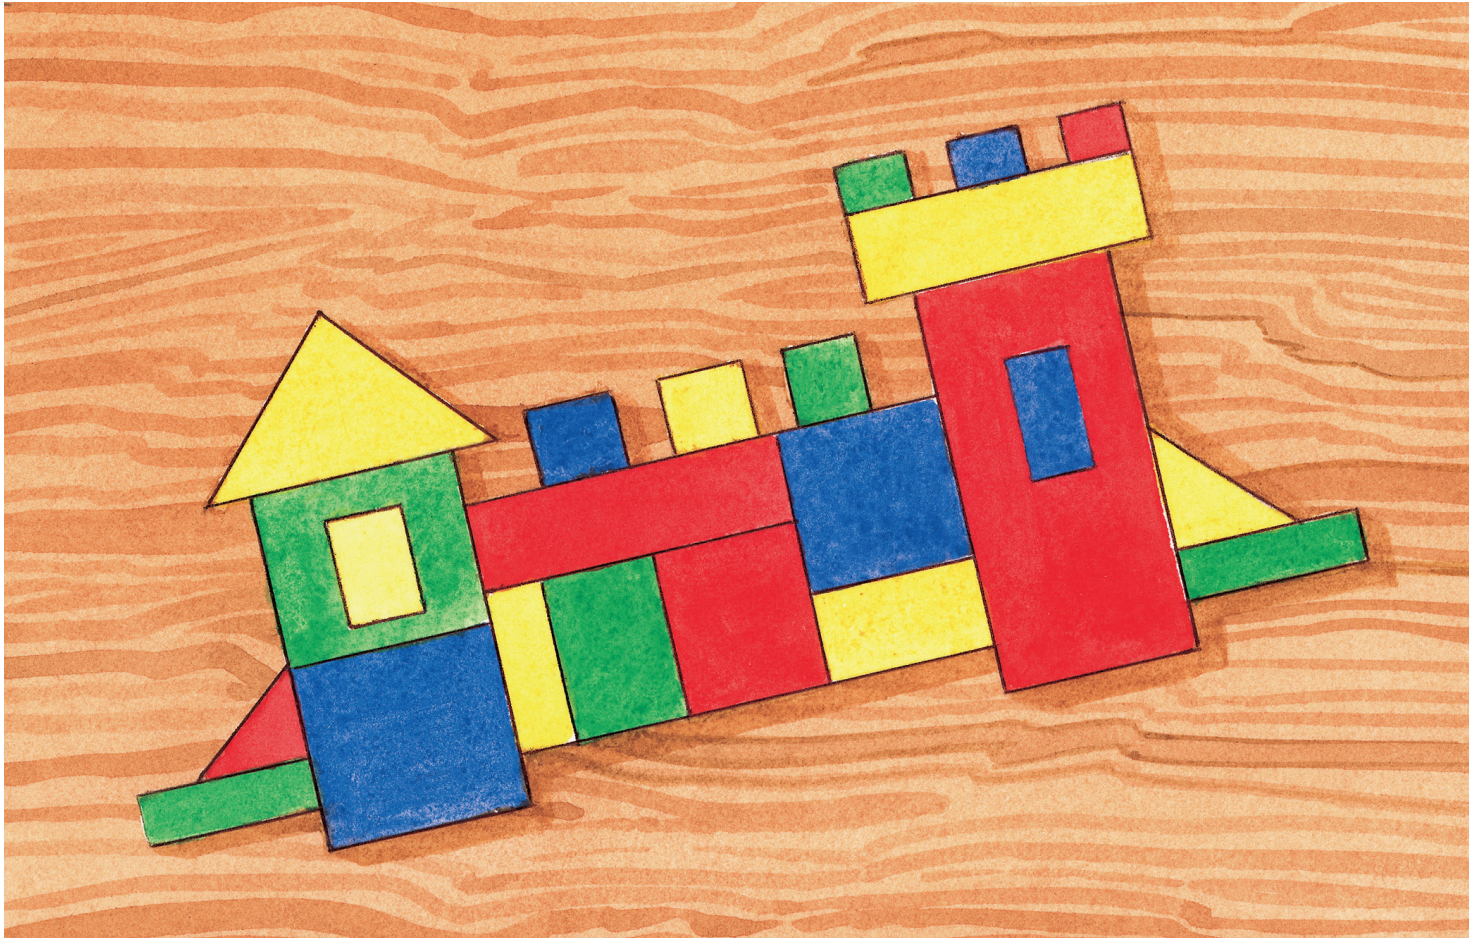

There were squares, circles, rectangles, and triangles.

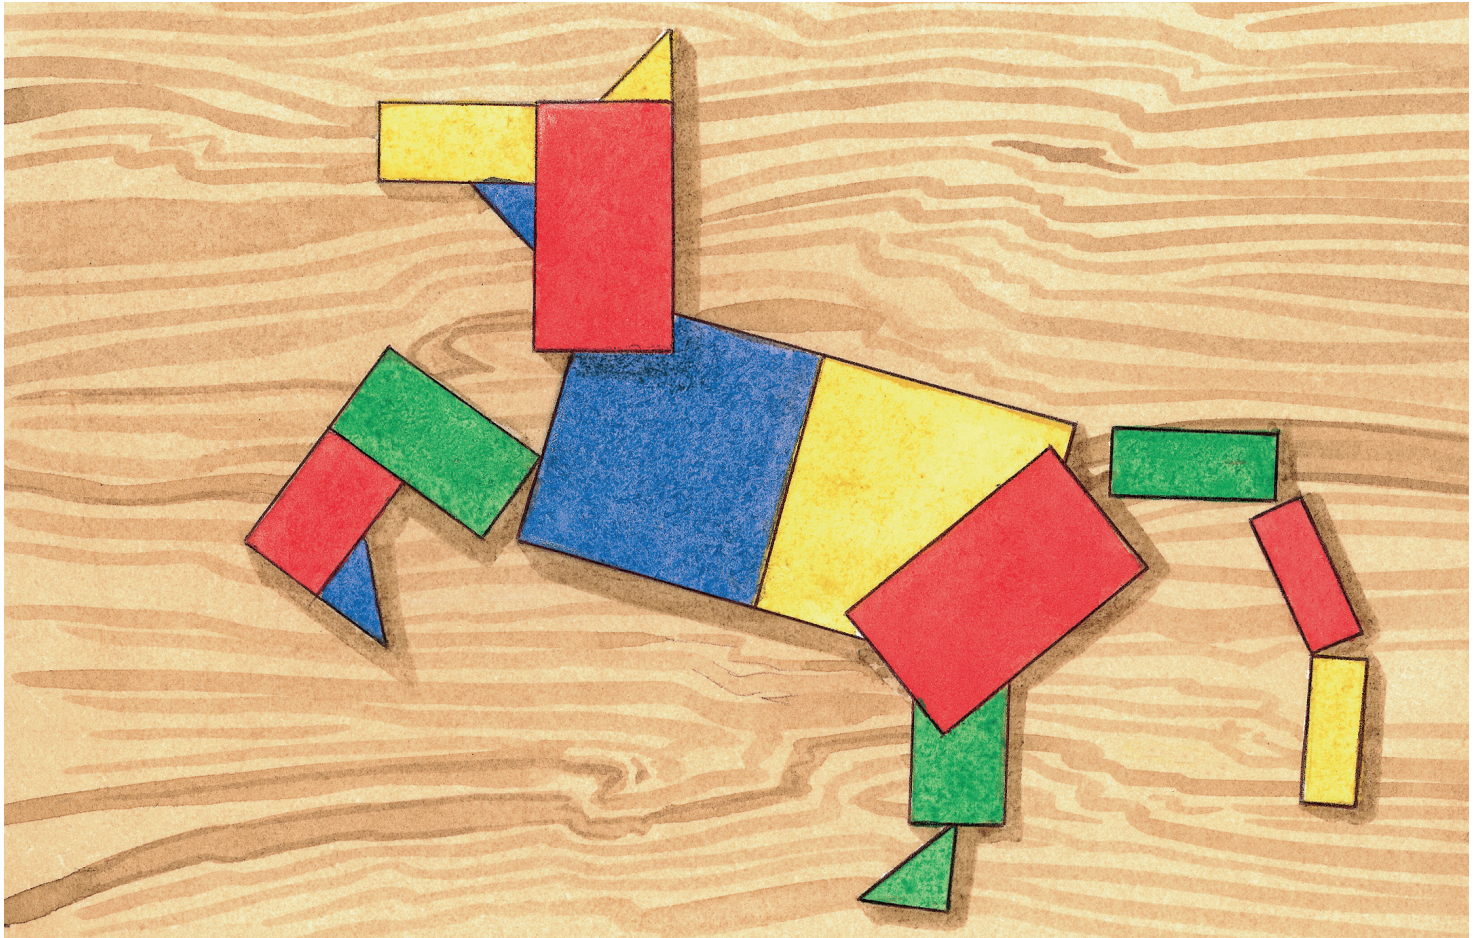

I made a cat with triangular ears, a dog with a rectangular tail, and a mouse with a circular nose.

I made a car with rectangles and circles. I made a boat with rectangles and triangles. I made an airplane with triangles and rectangles.

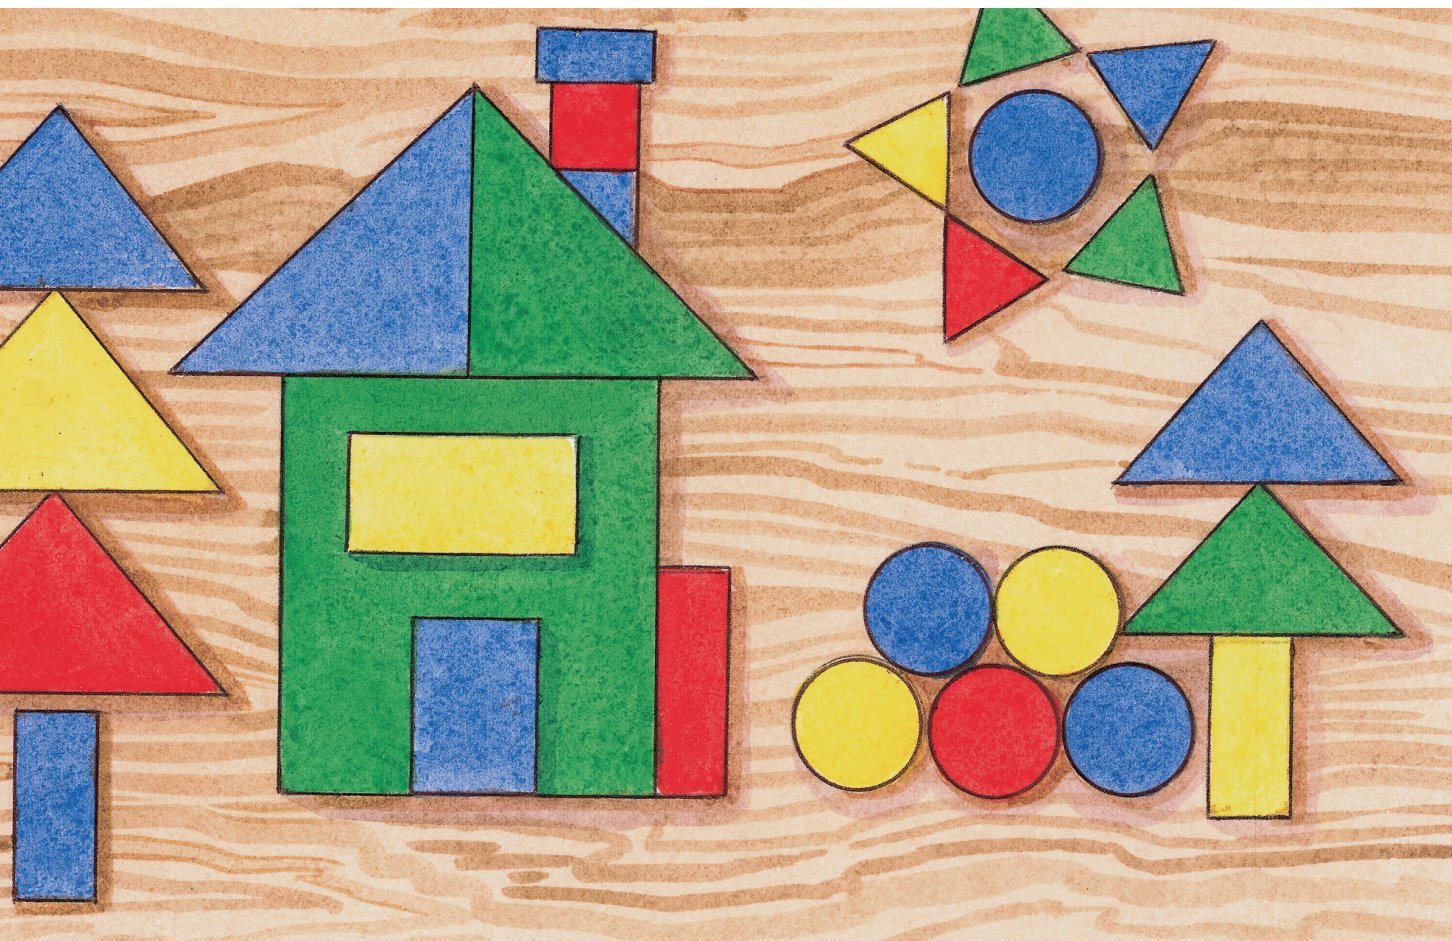

I made a castle . . .

and a horse with rectangles, squares, and triangles.

I made a street on a bright sunny day.

The sun is out! It's time to play!
