More Than One | Más de uno

Sing along to learn about adding "s" or "es" to the end of a word to make it mean more than one.

Canta para aprender a añadir "s" o "es" al final de una palabra para que signifique más de uno.

That letter S, he knows a trick
To the ends of words he does stick
He turns one thing into more than one
Woah! His job sure is fun!

Change tree to trees and bat to bats
Dog to dogs and cat to cats
Cloud to clouds and sun to suns
Woah! His job sure is fun!

Rhett liks fish but he only had one dish.
More plates of fish was his only wish.
So he added -es to the end of dish,
Dishes of fish to grant his wish

-Es is better than going to a store,
Just stick it to a word if you want more.
Like a glass in a box turns to glasses in boxes
A dress on a fox turns to dresses on foxes.

Squirrel's Zoo Colors | Colores del zoológico de ardillas

Sing along with Squirrel as he explores colors at the zoo.

Canta junto con Ardilla mientras explora los colores en el zoológico.

Look at all the colors I saw at the zoo today.

Oh, there were colors, colors everywhere as I walked all around.
White doves in the air, green frogs on the ground.
Yellow chicks went peep, a brown owl said,
 "Whoo."
An orange lizard in a cage—well he just sat
 and looked at you.
A pretty, purple butterfly came down upon my nose.
Panthers (black) had scary eyes and claws on their toes.
Blue birds, red roosters, and pink flamingos sat
Right beneath a big grey elephant—boy was he fat!

Homophone Monkey | Mono homófono

Sing along with this song about homophones, words that sound the same but have different meanings.

Canta junto con esta canción sobre los homófonos, palabras que suenan igual, pero tienen diferentes significados.

Homophone Monkey sits in a tree,
Thinking of tricks to play on me.
His homophones, they sound the same
But mean something different—that's his game!

He offered me a flower, pretty and white.
Then dumped flour on my head! What a sight!
He winked at my shoes. Did I want a new pair?
Then handed me a pear—now that wasn't fair!

I giggled and said, "Look at your hair!"
He felt his head and a hare was there.
My homophones, they sound the same
But mean something different—that's my game!

Apostrophe Pig | Cerdo apóstrofo

Sing along with this song that tells us how to use apostrophes to show that something belongs to someone.

Canta junto con esta canción que nos dice cómo usar apóstrofos para mostrar que algo pertenece a alguien.

Little Ruthie sat alone.
She had nothing of her own.
Apostrophe Pig flew into town.
He saw Ruthie's great big frown.

He plucked an apostrophe from his chest.
"Tack it on your name, and add an S,
For Ruthie's dog and Ruthie's cat,
Ruthie's ball and Ruthie's bat.

Ruthie's house with Ruthie's toys.
Ruthie's drum and Ruthie's noise.
Ruthie's flowers and Ruthie's trees."
He rescued her with apostrophes.
